Dr. J. H. Lampton has returned from Dr. Robert McChord's infirmary, where he went for treatment of his hand. From a small scratch on one of the fingers of his right hand about two months ago, a serious affection developed which caused the doctor to have to undergo an operation when a part of the finger was removed. Complete rest and treatment at the infirmary have improved the trouble.

Mrs. Charles Brady last week received a message announcing the death in Southern California of her brother, Scott Durham. and asking that money be sent if she desired the remains forwarded to this place for burial.
Mrs. Brady immediately telephoned $175 for that purpose but this week received another message saying that the body would be sent if they would pay the express charges. Mrs. Brady has ordered the remains sent.
She can hear no particulars as to the cause of her brother's death other than he died in a hospital. It will take about two weeks for the remains to reach this place after they have been shipped.

Pitiable Case.

A pitiable case of destitution came to light this week when a woman by the name of Cusick applied to Judge Litsy for help.
The woman who says she is the wife of Joe Cusick tells a pitiful tale. She is blind and has a child about five years of age.
She says they have been living in the Texas neighborhood for some time and that her husband deserted her and the child and she does not know what has become of him. She said she had relatives in Nelson county and Judge Litsy furnished her means to go to them but on Tuesday she returned saying that her relatives refused to care for her. She will probably be sent to the county poor house and the child should be sent to some orphan home. The couple lived in Nelson county and about two years ago the woman's eyesight was destroyed by being shot with a shot gun in the hands of her husband who however claims that he was shooting at a man with whom he had quarrelled. Cusick is said to be weak minded and trifling besides.

He Wrote Checks

Leslie Brown is a young negro of Mackville who went to school long enough to learn how to write checks and probably to "get notions" into his head on the question of how to get money without working for it. Some time during the month of August last year Brown came to town and passed a check drawn on the Farmers Bank, of Mackville for $1.70. Mr. C. L. Price handled the check and it came back from Mackville in due course of time with the endorsement that Brown had no account at that bank. The negro had made the statement to Mr. Price that he had money in the Mackville bank. Mr. Price it seems said nothing but "lay low" and Brown was not seen in Springfield.

field until one day last week when he called on Mr. Price and wanted him to cash another check. The latter however had quite enough experience with the negro's checks and refused to play. Some time ago Brown called at the First National Bank and told Mr. A. C. McElroy the cashier that he had a load of tobacco at the American tobacco Co's. warehouse and that he would bring his check to be deposited as soon as the tobacco could be unloaded and paid for. And in the meantime he asked Mr. McElroy if he would not be so kind as to cash a check for one dollar in advance of the deposit. This Mr. McElroy readily did and the day wore on and the negro never came back and it developed that he had no tobacco to be unloaded.
Brown also worked the worthless check game it is said for a small amount on Mr. David Litsy, of the Robertson-Clay-brooke Co. Mr. Price swore out a warrant last Saturday and had Brown locked up on the charge of obtaining money under false pretences. He waived an examining trial and was released on $200 bond to answer to the next grand jury.

Bonta-Hays.

Miss Nora Bonta and Mr.
James P. Hays, Jr., of Maple Hill, were quietly married in the parlor of "The Seelbach" in Louisville Wednesday evening at eight o'clock.

The engagement had been rumored some time, but the wedding came as a surprise to the friends of both parties, as their intentions had been kept a profound secret, only the parents of the bride, and her sisters, being apprised of the event.
Mrs. S. H. Bishop accompanied the happy couple to the city and with a few friends who joined them at the hotel, the ceremony was performed by a minister of the Methodist church.

The bride is well known here and throughout the county having spent a great deal of her time in town with her sister, Mrs. Bishop and taught in the county schools six years.

Mr. Hays is a well known farmer of the Maple Hill neighborhood, and is a son of Mr. James P. Hays, Sr.

Death of Miss Susan Edwards.

Miss Susan Edwards died at the home of her brother, Mr.
Ben Edwards about three miles north of Springfield on last Wednesday at 6 o'clock. Miss Edwards was 72 years of age and was born and reared in this county. She was a daughter of the late Johnathan Edwards one of the pioneer citizens of Washington county who came here when quite a boy from Virginia. The deceased was a woman of many estimable traits of character and was kind and charitable to all with whom she came in contact. She was a true Christian character and was a member of the Springfield Presbyterian church. A touching incident attending her death was the fact that she died of a cancer with which she had been afflicted for several years and yet no one was aware of the fact until a few days before her death when it became no longer possible for her to conceal her terrible secret. She bore her sufferings with great fortitude and was always cheerful towards others. Her brother Mr. Ben Edwards is the only remaining member of her immediate family. The funeral took place in the Presbyterian church on Friday. Rev. Lyons of the Methodist church preached the funeral sermon.

An Old Citizen Dead.

Mr. John E. Smith, one of the county's oldest and most respected citizens died at the home of his son, Mr. J. Rich Smith in the county Southwest of Springfield on last Sunday. Mr. Smith had been in failing health for several years and for the past two years had been a confirmed invalid both in mind and body.
He was 77 years of age and had been a resident of this county for about 40 years having moved here from Marion county where he was born. The deceased was a man of the highest integrity and always commanded the respect of those who knew him.
He had been a successful farmer and reared a large family of children to manhood and womanhood. Mr. Smith was twice married, he at the early age of nineteen years having married Miss Lyon of which union there were two daughters and one son to survive. His last wife who died about seven years ago was Miss Carrico. Those sons and daughters who survive are as follows: Mrs. Joe B. Carrico, J.

Rich Smith, Mrs. F. M. Carrico, James E. Smith, Mrs. Bart Mattingly and George W. Smith.
Mr. Smith is also survived by 63 grandchildren and 20 great grandchildren, nearly all of whom live in this county.
The funeral took place on Monday morning from St. Rose church, of which the deceased was a devout member.
